Reviews

Academic

[Dartmouth College] Hockaday School's strengths lie in the English, History, and Language Departments. The teachers are all extremely dedicated. There are good teachers in the Math and Science Department. Hockaday emphasis being a well-rounded student and encourages their students to work on all areas of their lives.

College Counseling

[Dartmouth College] School provides info sessions on college during Junior year. Advisor's, in this students case, are very unhelpful and discouraged applying to Ivy leagues.

Admissions Process

[Dartmouth College] Take the test going into either 5th grade or 9th grade because the most students are accepted at these points. An interview is required as Hockaday values the entire person and not just the test scores. Dress conservatively.

Extra-Curricular Activities

Hockaday offers tons of extracurricular activities. The sports teams are very strong, the drama department is awesome, and the arts programs are incredible. Students at Hockaday are very involved. Community service program is also very strong. Hockaday encourages all types of groups and if there isn't something in a category- they encourage you to create it.

Quality of School Life

[Dartmouth College] The school cafeteria is amazing. The neighborhood is very safe. The school is predominately white and then there are 5-12 minorities of each ethnicity per grade. The faculty isn't diverse racially-- it is diverse in terms of their individual lifestyles/views/experiences.
